

2019
ANNUAL REPORT

Hello from our team

The Storehouse has seen many new faces over the past two years. Before COVID-19 altered the world, New Mexico already ranked among the worst states for food insecurity. The pandemic worsened what was already a problem for New Mexico, and now 1 in every 3 children is at risk of hunger. This means that Storehouse needs to continue providing access to food for every child, adult, and senior facing food insecurity in Central New Mexico.

Like most organizations this past year, Storehouse was forced to pivot. To ensure that our staff, clients, and volunteers stay safe at the warehouse, we no longer practice the Client Choice Model. The Client Choice Model invited clients to shop in the warehouse as if it were a grocery store. However, this did not allow for social distancing. Now, Storehouse staff members distribute carts filled with boxes and bags of food to clients as they wait in a socially distanced line outside. Clients receive an average of 60-80 pounds of food when they visit the Storehouse, including meats, dairy, fresh fruits, vegetables, and shelf-stable items. More than 12,000 pounds of food goes out the door every day we are open to the public.

Despite the challenges of the past 18 months and an uncertain future, Storehouse is grateful to be an essential operation that continues to serve New Mexico's most vulnerable community members.

Cooking with Jason

Shortly after graduating from UNM with a Political Science degree and entering the business world, Jason became disabled. His government stipend wasn't enough for food, so he found his way to the Storehouse and has been coming for five years. Jason has also received clothes and hot meals as part of Storehouse's wraparound services. The friendly staff members at the Storehouse make it easy to visit and access resources.

Before the pandemic, Jason remembers when the Storehouse distributed recipe cards for items that the pantry gave out. Unfortunately, our current safety practices don't allow for that right now, but Jason never forgot it. Jason took the situation into his own hands, creating his own cooking channel on YouTube. The channel Jason set up features a lot of creative recipes. One video is about a breakfast dish he made up that he calls "Egg Dogs," a mouthwatering sandwich filled with a cheese omelet and hot dog. In another, he provides a step-by-step guide on how to make a turkey. The videos are for aspiring home chefs of all skill levels using foods straight from the Storehouse!

Jason's videos are honest and funny. He isn't afraid to share his jokes or his struggles. His humanity makes cooking feel personal and achievable.

Our Impact

Storehouse relies on donations from our generous community members for over 80% of our annual budget. We appreciate the people and organizations that have donated their time, food, and money to support our mission, especially during these challenging times. Thanks to our individual donors, faith-based organizations, civic groups, grants, government contracts, and corporate supporters, Storehouse is able to feed approximately 45,000 people each year.

Faith Based

The Storehouse operates with very little overhead. 97 cents from every dollar goes to feeding local families. With every dollar donated, the Storehouse provides 5 meals to New Mexicans facing food insecurity. As one of the largest food pantries in the state, the Storehouse distributes nearly 2 million pounds of food each year.

The fight against hunger is important in New Mexico. According to the U.S. Census, New Mexico has the second highest rate of poverty in the country. As a result, 1 in 6 New Mexicans are hungry. Impoverished states often face other hardships like lack of healthcare access, poor nutrition, homelessness, and crime. Storehouse supports our food insecure community members by not only providing free food, but also by offering many wraparound services. For example, we work with Adelante's Benefits Connection Center, which helps low-income adults with disabilities and seniors connect to governmental benefit programs. We also offer assistance with paying water/solid waste utility bills in cooperation with the Albuquerque Bernalillo County Water Utility Authority for the Low-Income Water and Solid Waste Credit (LIC) program. Storehouse has also joined Libros for Kids which is a national organization promoting literacy and reading.

Community partnerships are vital to the Storehouse mission. Together, we are feeding and supporting thousands of local families.

Local Churches Help Out

From the start, over 44 years ago, the Storehouse has relied on volunteer support. COVID-19 changed all that. Many of our volunteers were retirees and individuals in high-risk groups. Early last year, Storehouse found itself without much volunteer support and the pandemic also brought lots of new clients to the pantry.

In June, St. Timothy's Lutheran Church invited Storehouse fundraiser, Ernest R. Naaz, to a virtual adult education forum. The goal was for him to provide an update on the pantry. The discussion turned to the lack of volunteers and the staffing issue. During the discussion, St. Timothy's member, Grace, said, "what if we raise funds to support a full-time employee at Storehouse?" Silence filled the virtual meeting, until other members started nodding in agreement. Suddenly a plan was in place. The original goal was to raise approximately $27,000, and Storehouse would cover benefits and payroll taxes. Pastor Rachel from St. Timothy's made a few calls to other congregations and recruited three other Lutheran churches to join the cause.

St. Timothy's Lutheran Church members are longtime Storehouse supporters.

By the fall, All Saints Lutheran Church, St. Paul Lutheran Church, Community of Joy Lutheran Church, and St. Timothy's Lutheran Church joined forces with the Anderson Foundation and raised over $33,000 to fund the salary of a full-time employee at Storehouse for a year.
